Eugene Ocansey

Nana Kwabena Afoom

ACCESS BANK GHANA STRENGTHENS LEADERSHIP TEAM WITH TWO EXECUTIVE APPOINTMENTS

Access Bank (Ghana) Plc has announced the appointment of two accomplished banking executives to its senior leadership team, following regulatory approval by the Bank of Ghana. Eugene Ocansey joins the Bank as Executive Director, Retail and SME Banking, and Nana Kwabena Afoom as Executive Director, Wholesale Banking.

The appointments underscore the Bank's commitment to attracting exceptional talent in support of its strategic agenda to grow, transform, and protect the franchise. Together, Eugene Ocansey and Nana Kwabena Afoom bring more than four decades of combined experience spanning retail banking, SME development, corporate and institutional banking, digital transformation, business growth, and risk management, strengthening the leadership capacity required to build a future-ready institution and deliver sustainable value to customers, shareholders, employees and the communities the Bank serves

The Bank's growth agenda is focused on deepening customer relationships, expanding market share across retail, SME, commercial and corporate banking, and strengthening its position as a leading financial institution in Ghana. Its transformation agenda is centered on digitization, innovation, operational excellence, and delivering a simpler, faster, and more seamless banking experience for customers. Equally important is the Bank's commitment to protecting the franchise through strong governance, prudent risk management, regulatory compliance, cybersecurity resilience, and the preservation of stakeholder trust.

A Proven Leader in Retail and Digital Banking

Eugene Ocansey brings over 21 years of banking experience to his new role, 18 of which have been spent in senior leadership roles. His career spans Ghana Commercial Bank, Prudential Bank Ghana Limited, and Stanbic Bank Ghana, where he served as the Head of Personal and Private Banking. Across these institutions, he led transformative initiatives in retail distribution, customer experience, business development, and digital banking, building a reputation for delivering results in complex and competitive environments.

He holds an Executive MBA in Marketing from the University of Ghana Business School and a BSc in Tourism from the University of Cape Coast and has also completed executive programmes Cambridge, Oxford, and Henley Business School.

A Corporate Banking Leader with a Strong Track Record

Nana Kwabena Afoom is a seasoned banking executive with over 24 years of progressive experience in corporate, commercial, SME, and retail banking. Most recently, he served as Divisional Head of Corporate Banking at GT Bank Ghana, where he drove corporate strategy, business growth, and portfolio quality.

His career has also seen him hold senior positions including Group Head of SME Banking and Regional Head of Retail Banking. He has served on several executive committees and as Management Representative on the Board Credit Committee. Nana Kwabena Afoom has built a strong track record in business development, relationship management, portfolio growth, profitability, and risk management. He holds an MSc in International Economics, Banking and Finance from Cardiff Business School and a BSc in Agricultural Economics from the University of Ghana and has completed the McKinsey Executive Leadership Programme.

Commenting on the appointments, the Chairperson of the Board of Directors of Access Bank (Ghana) PLC, Ama Sarpong Barwuah, stated:

"These appointments reflect our commitment to building a world-class leadership team. Eugene and Nana bring the experience, character, and execution capability required to
